

ABOUT BARGAINS.

The merchant who does nothing but sing the praises of his low prices must be in pretty hard luck.

But once in a while it happens that even in a house which has a large patronage something must go quickly—and a low price does the business. Here's an instance: A couple of hundred fine suits at our lower store now marked fifteen dollars. You'll admit they are worth the old prices, twenty, twenty-five and twenty-eight dollars when you see them.

HACKETT, CARTHART AND COMPANY.

Two Stores: Broadway and Canal Street.

Broadway below Chambers Street.

OPEN THIS EVENING.
